TISOH Administrator Named Vice Chair of the Next Reigning Generation Division of the Nevada Hotel & Lodging Association

LAS VEGAS – TISOH announced today that school administrator Anthony Lai, CHE, CGSP was named Vice Chair of the Next Reigning Generation Division (NRG) of the Nevada Hotel & Lodging Association (NHLA).

Anthony Lai is the Student Affairs Program Manager at The International School of Hospitality (TISOH). In his current position, Anthony assists students with career placement and networking opportunities within the industry. Also, he spends time guiding each student through their employment process and interview skills.

The Next Reigning Generation is a division of the Nevada Hotel and Lodging Association comprised of young industry professionals under the age of 36. This division seeks to engage young professionals in the Nevada hospitality and support industries through the development of local resources including networking events, mixers, educational seminars, philanthropic events, professional development and career enhancement opportunities.

The Nevada Hotel and Lodging Association is the leading industry association in Nevada and one of the strongest in the USA. Since 1979, NHLA has been the unifying voice for Nevada's multi-billion dollar resort and lodging industry. With over 200 hotels and industry supporting vendor members, NHLA is the state's largest industry advocate.

The mission of TISOH is to provide current hospitality education and exceptional networking opportunities for students. Director of Academic Affairs Dr. Donnell G. Bayot, CHE, CPCE, CFBE said "Maintaining a leadership position in key industry association partners allows the institution to play a role in shaping the future of hospitality education."
