TISOH Joins Certified Meeting Professional (CMP) Preferred Provider Program

LAS VEGAS –TISOH: The International School of Hospitality has joined the Certified Meeting Professional (CMP) Preferred Provider program offered by the Convention Industry Council. Effective from May 2016, successful graduates of the Conference Management & Event Planning Certificate program, the Executive Diploma in Hospitality Operations with an Emphasis in Conference Management or Event Management, and the Diploma in Hotel Operations, will receive credit towards the continuing education requirement towards achieving or recertifying for the CMP.

TISOH, as a CMP Preferred Provider, has formally registered with the Convention Industry Council and has been reviewed for a curriculum that provides education in alignment with the 10 domains in the CMP International Standards (CMP-IS). The standards include Strategic Planning, Project Management, Risk Management, Financial Management, Human Resources, Stakeholder Management, Meeting or Event Design, Site Management, Marketing and Professionalism.

The CMP has certified more than 14,000 meeting professionals since the program began. The Conference Management & Event Planning program at TISOH started at the inception of the school in 2005 with a 90-hour certificate program. The program has gone through rigorous curriculum revisions to align with Meeting & Business Event Competency Standards (MBECS) and the CMP-IS. Taught entirely by Certified Meeting Professionals, Certified Professionals in Catering and Events, and Certified Special Event Professionals, the program uses the Convention Industry Council Manual as the required text to ensure course alignment with current industry demands. The school has been providing recognized training for career changers and those seeking credentials for advancement for the past 10 years.
