TISOH Administrator Named President-Elect of the National Association for Catering and Events

LAS VEGAS – TISOH announced today that its Director of Academic Affairs, Donnell G. Bayot Ph.D., CPCE, CHE, CFBE has been named as President-Elect of the National Association for Catering and Events (NACE).

The election took place at the Experience Conference and Expo in Ft. Lauderdale, FL last month. As President-Elect of the national board, the governing body for the association, he will, along with the board, be responsible for reviewing strategic objectives, reviewing progress on initiatives, and renewing their vision for the future.

Also elected to the national board was Kate Patay CPCE as Vice President. Kate is a lecturer at the school and regularly shares her expertise with students. Kate is the Executive Director of Sales and Marketing for Creative Coverings in Reno, NV.

With more than 4,000 members, the National Association for Catering and Events (NACE), www.nace.net is the oldest and largest professional association dedicated to all aspects of the catering and events industry. “With the mission of TISOH being to provide quality and practical continuing education to the hospitality industry, this engagement of one of our administrators shows how closely the institution is intertwined with industry, to benefit the entire school community.” said Timothy Lam, Executive Director of the school.
