TISOH honored by hotel association with supplier partner of the year award

LAS VEGAS – The International School of Hospitality (TISOH) has won the Supplier Partner of the Year Award from the Nevada Hotel & Lodging Association (NHLA). The award ceremony took place at the association’s Stars of the Industry Gala at the Aria Resort & Casino in Las Vegas.

The Supplier Partner of the Year award honors an NHLA member company based on special support to the association’s activities and exceptional services to the lodging industry in Nevada.

“I am very excited that our institution has received this special honor from the NHLA. From founding 13 years ago, TISOH has made it mission critical to work with and support industry associations. Helping build a qualified workforce is what we do” said Dr. Donnell Bayot, Director of Academic Affairs for the institution.

The Nevada Hotel and Lodging Association is the leading industry association in Nevada and one of the strongest in the USA.
