TISOH participates in hotel association career event

LAS VEGAS – The International School of Hospitality (TISOH) will be participating in the Nevada Hotel & Lodging Association (NHLA) Next Reigning Generation (NRG) “Advance: Developing Skills to Grow in Your Career” seminar on November 5th, 2018 at the Orleans Hotel in Las Vegas.

The seminar will feature a group of young professionals sharing their experience and career tips. Among the panelists, will be Anthony Lai, Student Affairs Program Manager for TISOH. Anthony is also the Chairperson for NRG. The moderator will be TISOH instructor and MGM Resorts International Director of Career Development, Janice Tanaka.

“We strongly encourage young professionals to get out to network, mingle and learn from each other. Hospitality is a people business and climbing the career ladder requires people skills. TISOH is proud to support the NRG and its endeavors in equipping young professionals with the tools for career success” said Dr. Donnell Bayot, Director of Academic Affairs for the institution.

The Nevada Hotel and Lodging Association is the leading industry association in Nevada and one of the strongest in the USA. Since 1979, NHLA has been the unifying voice for Nevada’s multi-billion-dollar resort and lodging industry. With over 200 hotels and industry supporting vendor members, NHLA is the state’s largest industry advocate.
