TISOH Receives Best Team Event of the Year Award from the National Association for Catering and Events

LAS VEGAS – TISOH announced today that it has received the Best Team Event of the Year, Budget Less than $50,000 award from the National Association for Catering and Events (NACE) at the annual NACE Awards.

Held in conjunction with the Experience Conference and Expo in Ft Lauderdale, FL this month, the annual NACE Awards recognize excellence in the planning and execution of special events and celebrations, as well as individual chapter programs and accomplishments.

The winning event was for a formal gala dinner at the Bellagio Resort & Casino on May 5, 2015 to celebrate the 10th anniversary of the school. More than just a celebration of its students and 1,500+ strong alumni, the objective for the gala dinner was to honor and thank the many individuals and organizations that contribute selflessly to TISOH's mission every day by sharing their passions to help others pursue their dreams. "With TISOH being known for its outstanding programs and personalized attention, the evening successfully conveyed a message of stability, premium quality, and a convivial, familial atmosphere for which the school is known." said Timothy Lam, Executive Director of the school.

Team members for this award winning event included: Bellagio (venue and catering), MGM Resorts Event Productions (décor), Creative Coverings (linen), Champagne Creative (live models), Memory Lane Video (videography), Brit Bertino Event Excellence (entertainment), Delgado Dance Studio (entertainment), Frank Salerno LIVE (live music), Jenna Dosch Photography (photography), Southern Wine & Spirits (wine and liquor), and Paper & Home (invitations).
