TISOH Approved to Train Veterans

LAS VEGAS – TISOH announced that it has been approved to train veterans under GI Bill benefits. The approval to train veteran affairs education beneficiaries applies to all classroom programs offered by the institution.

The approval to train veterans is a rigorous process that requires compliance with established standards and under regular inspection and supervision by the United States Department of Veteran Affairs and their state approving agencies.

The mission of TISOH is to provide current hospitality education and exceptional networking opportunities for students. Director of Admissions and Recruitment Marcus M. Lam, CHT, CGSP said “Veterans have a discipline and a work ethic that is well suited for the hospitality industry. The concentrated and niche programs in hospitality at the institution will allow veterans to gain access to professionals in the field and targeted education.”

About The International School of Hospitality

The International School of Hospitality (TISOH) was founded in Las Vegas, Nev., in 2005. TISOH offers quality short-term, practical training and career development programs in hospitality. Developed for the industry and by the industry, TISOH’s small class sizes and online courses include: concierge, conference management and event planning, catering, exhibition & tradeshow management, hospitality leadership and supervision, hospitality human resources, hospitality marketing & sales, hotel operations, and wedding coordination and design. Diploma graduates, trained by working experts in the field, enjoy an 85 percent job placement rate.
