Topgolf Las Vegas Selects TISOH as Site for Orientation

LAS VEGAS – The classroom building at TISOH: The International School of Hospitality hosted the Topgolf new employee orientation for their now open Las Vegas facility during the final phases of construction.

The new classroom building at TISOH is centrally located within 15 minutes from the Strip and McCarran Airport. The building features six classrooms, all with Wi-Fi and state-of-the-art audio/visual capabilities. With a capacity of up to 142, the building is well suited for seminars and trainings.

“Topgolf, as the premier golf entertainment complex in the nation, is an important new attraction for Las Vegas. We hope that their new team members will feel the spirit of hospitality as they get oriented in the upbeat and refreshing atmosphere of the school while they anticipate the unveiling of their own private event space,” said Timothy M Lam, executive director of TISOH.

About The International School of Hospitality

The International School of Hospitality (TISOH) was founded in Las Vegas, Nev., in 2005. TISOH offers quality short-term, practical training and career development programs in hospitality.
