

Ashley Disbennett

Ashley Disbennett is the Recruitment Coordinator for The International School of Hospitality (TISOH) in Las Vegas, Nevada.

Ashley joined TISOH in 2018 to guide students toward their career and development goals. Ashley identifies and follows up on leads, conducts campus tours and establishes rapport with prospective students.

Ashley brings a plethora of hospitality knowledge to the TISOH team. She has over 13 years of operational hospitality experience. Ashley has overseen food and beverage departments: spending 7 years managing several outlets at different Hyatt properties. Before relocating to Las Vegas, Ashley managed the dining venues at Vi, which is a Continuing Care Retirement Community in Palo Alto, California.

Ashley's extensive hospitality experience includes working as an Assistant Food and Beverage Manager at Hyatt Regency Columbus, Restaurant Manager at Hyatt Regency Cleveland at the Arcade, Outlet Director at Hyatt Regency Atlanta, Assistant General Manager at Rocky Mountain Pizza Company and Dining Services Manager at Vi at Palo Alto.

Ashley holds an associate degree in business management from the Ohio University in Chillicothe, Ohio.
