

Anthony Lai

Anthony Lai is the student affairs program manager for The International School of Hospitality (TISOH) in Las Vegas, Nevada.

Lai joined TISOH in 2015 to oversee students as they embark on their externships, and to assist them with the first steps of launching their careers, from assistance with resume writing to providing career coaching and networking opportunities.

Lai brings to TISOH a broad range of experience in the hospitality industry that includes a keen knowledge of the skills industry leaders look for in successful employees. Lai previously worked as guest services manager at LINQ Hotel and Casino, where he trained, coached and motivated team members to successfully meet company expectations along with their career goals.

Prior to his work at LINQ, Lai was the implementation specialist for the hotel division at MICROS Systems Inc., an updated computer system for hospitality applications intended to make hotel reservations more customer-specific.

Lai's extensive hospitality experience includes working as a room reservations supervisor at Mandarin Oriental Las Vegas, groups concierge at Aria Resort & Casino, relief night supervisor at Peninsula Beverly Hills and V.I.P concierge at The Mansion at MGM Grand.

Lai holds a Bachelor of Science degree in hospitality administration from the University of Nevada, Las Vegas and a Certified Hospitality Educator (CHE) from the American Hotel & Lodging Education Institute. He is also the recipient of the 2017 Emerging Leader of the Year from the Nevada Hotel & Lodging Association.
