

Michael Mercado

Michael Mercado is the Academic Program Coordinator for The International School of Hospitality (TISOH) in Las Vegas, Nevada

Mercado joined TISOH in 2018 to assist students in their course work and to help students accomplish their academic goals. This includes providing coaching to students and assistance with program operations.

Mercado brings to TISOH a broad range of experience in hospitality and different areas of the workforce. Mercado previously worked at Emeril's New Orleans Fish House at MGM Grand, where he was a server and helped train others on personal communication and teamwork.

Mercado was a teacher for the Clark County School District teaching high school seniors. Mercado also has experience working with the military teaching leadership skills and helping members transition into satisfying careers.

Mercado holds an AA in Fine Arts and a BA in History from the University of Nevada Las Vegas. He is currently a student at Concordia University working on his Masters in Sports Administration.
